

D · R · A · W

Miller & Mercer, 1993

Discover the sign.

Ask yourself, "What operation do I need to perform?"

Read the problem.

The student can read it out loud, or silently, depending on student needs and teacher preference.

Answer or draw and check.

*Answer the question if the fact is committed to memory.
If not, draw a picture to find the answer.*

Write the answer.

Record your answer on the worksheet or test.